

DR. CHRISTIANE MÜHE, MJUR (OXFORD)

EDUCATION & PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND:

2018

Founded FM Notare

2016 – 2018

Notary with a Frankfurt notarial office with a focus on corporate and real estate law as well as lecturer in corporate law and mergers and acquisitions at the University of Applied Sciences of Aschaffenburg

2010 – 2016

Lawyer and notary with the US law firm Mayer Brown with focus on corporate law/M&A as well as banking/finance in Frankfurt am Main, Berlin, and London

2007 – 2010

Lawyer with the German corporate law firm Hengeler Mueller in Frankfurt am Main with focus on corporate law/M&A as well as banking/finance

2006 – 2007

Master's degree in International and European law from the University of Oxford, England

2005 – 2007

Clerkship at the Higher Regional Court of Hamburg

2006

Doctorate degree at the University of Heidelberg (awarded by the Baden-Württemberg Employers' Association of the Electrical and Metal Industry, 2006)

2002 – 2004

Research assistant to Prof. Dr. Brigitte Tag in the Department of Commercial Criminal Law and Medical Law for, University of Zurich, Switzerland

1999 – 2001 und 2004 – 2005

Research assistant to Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Thomas Hillenkamp in the Department of Criminal Law and Criminal Procedural Law, University of Heidelberg

1998 – 2001

Law degree at the University of Heidelberg

PUBLICATIONS

April 2017, Börsenzeitung interview: Dr. Christiane Mühe in connection with the management of the largest liability management transaction to date, Börsenzeitung 2017

2017, Article: Dr. Christiane Mühe, Changes to bond terms and conditions – challenges and practical experiences in holding creditors' meetings, Journal of Banking and Capital Market Law 2017, p. 50 ff.

2006, Dissertation: Bullying in the workplace – risk of criminal liability or gap in criminal law? A consideration from a current and future-oriented perspective, publisher: Duncker & Humblot, 2006, analysis of the Federal Court of Justice in 4 StR 71/11, decision published in the public collection of the Federal Court of Justice, BGHSt 2011